TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that as soon as counsel may be heard in Department 10A of the above-named court, located at 411 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California, the court-appointed Receiver for The Carolina Development Company, Inc. ("Carolina Development"), Thomas A. Seaman ("Receiver") hereby moves the Court for an order approving the proposed settlement agreement between the Receiver on behalf of the receivership estate on the one hand, and Fountainhead Partners IV, LLC, Frank Perna, Jr., and The Fountainhead Company, LLC (the "Fountainhead Parties"), on the other (the "Proposed Settlement Agreement"). (See Seaman Decl. to Ex Parte Application filed concurrently herewith, Proposed Settlement Agreement, Ex. "A".)

This motion is based upon this Court's inherent authority and the accompanying memorandum of points and authorities, supporting declarations, and upon such additional evidence and oral argument as the Court may consider in connection with this motion.

THOMAS A. SEAMAN

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 The Court-appointed Receiver, Thomas A. Seaman ("Receiver"), 3 respectfully submits this Memorandum in support of his motion for approval of the 4 proposed settlement agreement between the Receiver on behalf of the receivership
5 estate on the one hand, and Fountainhead Partners IV, LLC ("FPIV"), Frank Perna, 6 Jr., and The Fountainhead Company, LLC (the "Fountainhead Parties"), on the other 7 (collectively, the "Settling Parties") (the "Proposed Settlement Agreement"). (See 8 Seaman Decl. to Ex Parte Application filed concurrently herewith, Proposed 9 Settlement Agreement, Ex. "A".)

10 11 I. INTRODUCTION

12 The Receiver has negotiated a good faith, favorable settlement for the 13 estate with the Fountainhead Parties. If the Proposed Settlement Agreement is 14 approved, the Receiver will be paid $400,000 of an ill-fated $2,000,000 original 15 investment by The Carolina Development Company, Inc. ("Carolina Development") 16 in FPIV. In exchange, the Receiver will release all Notices of Pendency¹ he caused 17 to be recorded against the real estate held by FPIV upon his appointment to protect 18 the estate's interests. (See Ex. "C" to Seaman Decl., Ex Parte Application.) Absent 19 approval of the Proposed Settlement Agreement, the receivership estate could lose 20 its entire interest, since a senior secured lender recorded a Notice of Breach and 21 Election to Sell Under Deed of Trust ("Notice of Foreclosure") against the real 22 estate owned by FPIV on January 10, 2008. (Ex. "D" to Seaman Decl. in support of 23 Ex Parte Application.) The Receiver is facing a March 15, 2008 deadline imposed 24 under the Proposed Settlement Agreement. Such deadline was imposed because the 25 Fountainhead Parties must negotiate their refinance loan very quickly. Otherwise,

26 _____
27 ¹ The Receiver caused several notices to be recorded against the Land, one for 28 each receivership entity and for each alias used by the defendants. For purposes of this Motion, the Receiver will refer to all as a single "Notice".

1 the Fountainhead Parties will not be able to cure the alleged defaults under the 2 existing financing.

3 The Receiver further believes that failure to obtain approval for the 4 Proposed Settlement Agreement before March 15, 2008 not only jeopardizes the 5 settlement with the Fountainhead Parties, but ultimately means the foreclosure will 6 go forward and the estate will lose its $2,000,000 investment. (Seaman Decl. to Ex 7 Parte Application, ¶ 12.) As such, after much negotiation and careful consideration, 8 the Receiver is confident this Proposed Settlement Agreement will render a 9 favorable result for the estate and is in the estate's best interest.

10 11 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

12 FPIV is the developer of a condominium project known as Galileo (the 13 "Project") located on approximately 18 acres of land near Lake Las Vegas in 14 Henderson, Nevada (the "Land"). In or about December 2005, FPIV offered to 15 grant Carolina Development a "Class C" membership interest in FPIV in 16 consideration of Carolina Development agreeing to provide funds for the Project in 17 the aggregate amount of $15,000,000 as set forth in the Memorandum of 18 Understanding dated December 27, 2005 (the "MOU"). (See Ex. "E" to Seaman 19 Decl., Ex Parte Application.)

20 Carolina Development paid FPIV $2,000,000 of the $15,000,000 in 21 December 2005. Carolina Development was scheduled to pay FPIV the remaining 22 $13,000,000 on February 10, 2006, on the eve of the Receiver's appointment, but 23 did not. Shortly after the Receiver's appointment, the Receiver caused a Notice to 24 be recorded against the Land to impart constructive notice of the estate's interest to 25 third parties. (Ex. "C" to Seaman Decl., Ex Parte Application.) As a result of the 26 Notice and Carolina Development's inability to fund the remaining $13,000,000, 27 FPIV contends that it has been unable to renegotiate its loan terms and has defaulted 28 on its loan.

1 On or about January 10, 2008, the holder of the first deed of trust
2 initiated foreclosure proceedings by filing a Notice of Breach and Election to Sell 3 Under Deed of Trust ("Notice of Foreclosure"). (Ex. "D" to Seaman Decl., Ex Parte 4 Application.) The Fountainhead Parties are negotiating a refinance loan, the 5 proceeds of which would repay the foreclosing lender. Such refinancing, however, 6 cannot proceed without the Receiver releasing the Notice currently encumbering the 7 Land. Understandably, the Receiver does not want to release the Notice without 8 receiving appropriate compensation for the interest held by the estate. The deadline 9 for the performance by the Settling Parties of their respective obligations is March 10 15, 2008, as set forth in section 3.1.1. of the Proposed Settlement Agreement.

11 The Fountainhead Parties and the Receiver have negotiated the 12 following terms as set forth in the Proposed Settlement Agreement:

- 13 • Subject to Court approval of the settlement terms, on or before 14 March 15, 2008, the Fountainhead Parties will deliver into 15 escrow the sum of $400,000 for benefit of the receivership 16 estate;
- 17 • Upon receipt of fully executed original counterparts of the 18 Proposed Settlement Agreement, the escrow agent will deliver 19 complete originals to the parties, and the $400,000 to the 20 Receiver;
- 21 • The Receiver shall execute a full release of the Notice in a form 22 reasonably acceptable to the escrow agent and the title company 23 to allow FPIV to proceed with its refinancing;
- 24 • The Receiver will move the Court for approval of the Proposed 25 Settlement Agreement;
- 26 • The Fountainhead Parties generally release the Receiver and the 27 estate; and
- 28 • The Receiver, on behalf of the estate, specifically releases the

1 Fountainhead Parties.

2 (Ex "A" to Seaman Decl., Ex Parte Application.)

3 The Receiver is confident that the terms of the Proposed Settlement 4 Agreement appropriately compensate the receivership estate for its interest in FPIV.

6 III. THE LEGAL STANDARD

7 The Proposed Settlement Agreement embodies a voluntary undertaking 8 by the Settling Parties to achieve two common goals: avoiding FPIV's risk of losing 9 its interest in the Land, and avoiding the receivership estate potentially losing its 10 interest in the Land and in FPIV. The potential loss is attributed to FPIV's inability 11 to refinance its loan due to the Notice recorded by the Receiver. FPIV contends 12 that, as a result it has defaulted on its loan – causing the filing of the Notice of 13 Foreclosure.

14 Given the potential loss of the receivership's interest, the $2,000,000 15 investment made in December 2005 by Carolina Development in FPIV, and the 16 consequences to the individual investors, the legal principles governing court 17 approval of consent decrees are relevant to this Court's review of the Proposed 18 Settlement Agreement and ruling on the instant motion for approval. As the Court 19 is aware, a "consent decree is essentially a settlement agreement subject to 20 continued judicial policing. It is not a decision on the merits or the achievement of 21 the optimal outcome for all parties, but is the product of negotiation and 22 compromise." United States v. Oregon, 913 F.2d 576, 580 (9th Cir. 1990) (citation 23 and internal quotation omitted). Approval of a proposed consent decree is 24 committed to the informed discretion of the district court. Id.; SEC v. Randolph, 25 736 F.2d 525, 529 (9th Cir. 1984).

26 In reviewing this Proposed Settlement Agreement, this Court is to 27 exercise its discretion taking into account the strong public policy favoring the 28 voluntary settlement of litigation, Ahern v. Central Pac. Freight Lines, 846 F.2d 47,

1 48 (9th Cir. 1988), especially where, as here, a court appointee is charged with 2 protecting public (the investors) rights have taken an active role in crafting the 3 settlement. See United States v. Montrose Chem. Corp., 50 F.3d 741, 746 (9th Cir.
4 1995); United States v. Cannons Engineering Corp., 899 F.2d 79, 84 (1st Cir. 1990); 5 Montrose, 50 F.3d at 746 (quoting Cannons Engineering Corp., 899 F.2d at 84); see 6 also Sam Fox Pub. Co. v. United States, 366 U.S. 683, 689 (1961) (absent 7 malfeasance or bad faith, courts are not to "assess the wisdom of the Government's 8 judgment in negotiating and accepting ... [a] consent decree"); United States v.
9 Bechtel Corp., 648 F.2d 660, 666 (9th Cir. 1981) (the balancing of interests "must 10 be left, in the first instance, to the discretion of the Attorney General.").

11 Here, the Proposed Settlement Agreement embodies a commitment by 12 the Receiver to salvage as much as possible of the $2,000,000 Carolina 13 Development investment for benefit of the estate, that will ultimately benefit the 14 1,400+ Carolina Development investors. This is certainly of great public benefit.
15 The fact that none of the Carolina Development investors, defendants to this action, 16 Lambert Vander Tuig and Jonathan Carman, and none of the noticed third parties 17 have objected to the terms of the proposed settlement weighs heavily in favor of 18 Court approval of the Proposed Settlement Agreement. Additionally, the plaintiff in 19 this action, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"), has not 20 objected to the Proposed Settlement Agreement, which also weighs heavily in favor 21 of Court approval.

22 Further, in considering the Proposed Settlement Agreement, it is 23 important for the Court to recognize that it consists of a number of carefully 24 negotiated clauses that serve the broader purpose of protecting the investors' rights 25 in the monies invested by Carolina Development in FPIV. "[T]he court's intrusion 26 upon what is otherwise a private consensual agreement negotiated between the 27 parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned 28 judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or

1 collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole
2 is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.'" Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150
3 F.3d 1011, 1027 (9th Cir. 1988) (quoting Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com., 4 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)). All such conditions are satisfied here.

5 In performing its review of the Proposed Settlement Agreement, this Court is not 6 required to make the same in-depth analysis that would otherwise be required to 7 enter a judgment on the merits after trial:

8 The trial court in approving a settlement need not inquire 9 into the precise legal rights of the parties nor reach and 10 resolve the merits of the claims or controversy, but need 11 only determine that the settlement is fair, adequate, 12 reasonable, and appropriate under the particular facts and that there has been valid consent by the concerned parties.

13 Citizens for a Better Environment v. Gorsuch, 718 F.2d 1117, 1126 (D.C. Cir. 1983)
14 (quoting Metropolitan Housing Development Corp. v. Village of Arlington Heights, 15 616 F.2d 1006, 1014 (7th Cir. 1980)); see also United States v. Rohm & Haas Co., 16 721 F. Supp. 666, 686 (D.N.J. 1989) (lengthy evidentiary hearings not required 17 when deciding whether to enter a consent decree).

18 Rather, "[a]s long as [a] consent decree comes within the general scope 19 of the case made by the pleadings, furthers the objectives upon which the law is 20 based, and does not violate the statute upon which the complaint was based, the 21 parties' agreement may be entered by the court." Sierra Club, Inc. v. Electronic 22 Controls Design, Inc., 909 F.2d 1350, 1355 (9th Cir. 1990) (internal quotations and 23 citations omitted).

24 The Proposed Settlement Agreement clearly is within the scope of the 25 action brought by the Commission, and the scope of the Receiver's responsibilities 26 as set forth in this Court's Order Appointing Receiver entered on February 16, 2008 27 (Docket No. 13) and the Order Expanding the Scope of the Receivership entered on 28

1 April 7, 2008 (Docket No. 43), and furthers such objectives. The Proposed 2 Settlement Agreement provides, among other things, for the Fountainhead Parties to 3 generally release and remise the receivership estate on the one hand, but only for a 4 specific release by the Receiver of the Fountainhead Parties. (Ex. "A" to Seaman 5 Decl., Ex Parte Application.) The purpose of these clauses was to protect the estate 6 from waiving any claims as to the Fountainhead Parties that do not relate to the 7 Land.

8 Not only do none of the terms and conditions of the Proposed 9 Settlement Agreement violate any of the statutes on which the Commission's action 10 was based or upon which the Receiver's appointment was made, the Proposed 11 Settlement Agreement specifically provides that it shall be implemented subject to 12 Court Approval and the Receiver retains any potential claims against the 13 Fountainhead Parties, outside of the claims relating to the Land. Id. The Proposed 14 Settlement Agreement represents the agreements of the Settling Parties reached after 15 intensive and difficult settlement negotiations over the past nearly 24 months.
16 (Seaman Decl., ¶¶ 6-7.) Far from being the product of "fraud, overreaching, or 17 collusion," the Proposed Settlement Agreement is the product of the Settling Parties' 18 good faith efforts to negotiate a global resolution of this complex litigation.

19 In short, viewed as a whole, the Proposed Settlement Agreement is fair, 20 reasonable, and adequate to the Settling Parties and to the Carolina Development 21 investors.

22 23 IV. THE SETTLEMENT

24 To assist the Court in its review of the Proposed Settlement Agreement, 25 in light of the legal standard set forth in the preceding section, the Receiver provides 26 the following summary of its material terms and conditions:

1 DECLARATION OF THOMAS A. SEAMAN

2 I, Thomas A. Seaman, hereby declare and say that:

3 1. I am the Receiver for The Carolina Development Company, Inc.
4 and related subsidiaries and affiliates ("Carolina Development").

6 2. I am over the age of eighteen and competent to testify in a court 7 of law. If called to testify as a witness regarding the statements set forth below, I 8 could and would competently testify thereto.

10 3. I serve as receiver for Carolina Development. In connection 11 with my duties as receiver, I conducted an accounting of receipts to and 12 disbursements from Carolina Development’s bank accounts. I also reviewed 13 settlement statements relative to certain real estate and real estate ventures and 14 interests entered into by Carolina Development.

15
16 4. During my review of these records, I learned that Carolina 17 Development paid $2,000,000 to an escrow holder as partial consideration for the 18 purchase of approximately 18 acres of land in the Lake Las Vegas development in 19 Henderson, Nevada (the "Fountainhead Land") by Fountainhead Partners, IV, LLC, 20 a Delaware limited liability company (“Fountainhead”). Fountainhead bought the 21 Fountainhead Land with the intention of developing it into a high-end condominium 22 project, the development cost of which would be financed by additional debt. The 23 purchase price of the Land was $44,000,000. Fountainhead paid cash of $2,250,000
24 to the escrow holder. The balance of the purchase price was financed with debt 25 incurred by Fountainhead. This debt was comprised of $18.6 million from a bank 26 for a land acquisition loan, $12 million in a longer term purchase money trust deed, 27 and another note, also carried by the seller, in the amount of $13 million. It appears 28 from correspondence I located at Carolina Development and from certain documents

1 provided by Fountainhead (including a Memorandum of Understanding) that 2 Carolina Development was also supposed to invest an additional $13 million cash in 3 early February 2006, just prior to my appointment as Receiver. This amount vastly 4 exceeded the amount of funds I seized upon my appointment and this payment was 5 never made.

7 5. Fountainhead contends that Carolina Development breached its 8 agreement to invest funds in Fountainhead. As a result of the alleged breach, 9 Fountainhead contends that it defaulted on the debt used to acquire the land and was 10 allegedly forced to obtain substitute financing to repay the seller's loan. Shortly 11 following my appointment as receiver, over two years ago, I contacted Fountainhead 12 for the purpose of determining exactly what ownership interest (if any) Carolina 13 Development had obtained in Fountainhead and pursuing a return of all or part of 14 Carolina Development's investment. Fountainhead was not willing to return any of 15 the $2,000,000 invested by Carolina Development, and no progress was made 16 toward resolving this dispute. Shortly following my appointment as Receiver, I 17 recorded Notices of Pendency of Receivership (collectively, the "Notice") on the 18 Fountainhead Land which essentially act as lis pendens. I recorded the Notice to 19 protect Carolina Development's interest in the Fountainhead Land by giving third 20 parties constructive notice of Carolina Development's interest. A true and correct 21 copy of a representative Notice is attached to the declaration I submitted in support 22 of the Ex Parte Application as Exhibit "C."

23 24 6. Over the course of the receivership, I made several attempts to 25 resolve this dispute. Some attempts to resolve this dispute were initiated by 26 Fountainhead when prospective lenders would see the Notice on title reports.
27 Typically, Fountainhead would demand that I remove the Notice and threaten a 28 lawsuit seeking damages from Carolina Development. While it was clear to me that

1 Carolina Development made an ill-fated original $2,000,000 investment, my only 2 means of protecting Carolina Development's interest was to keep the Notice in 3 place.

5 7. More recently, I was approached by Frank Perna, Jr. of 6 Fountainhead who informed me that he had bought out his other partners and was 7 now the sole managing member of Fountainhead. He again demanded that I remove 8 the Notice so that financing of the Project could be obtained, but expressed some 9 understanding of my position for the benefit of the investors in the instant action.
10 He also expressed more openness to resolve this dispute. Mr. Perna suggested some 11 sort of small equity position in Fountainhead for Carolina Development if I would 12 release the Notice. The long term nature of an equity interest did not appear 13 consistent with my duties to conclude the affairs of the receivership estate and I 14 responded with a "put/call" proposal designed to both induce Fountainhead to buy-15 out Carolina Development's position in the short term and to provide an exit strategy 16 for Carolina Development if our position did not get purchased. Instead, Mr. Perna 17 proposed a cash buy-out of Carolina Development. After negotiating with Mr.
18 Perna over the buy-out price, I ultimately agreed to $400,000 with mutual releases 19 in exchange for my release of the Notice, subject to Court approval. A true and 20 correct copy of the settlement agreement is attached to the declaration I submitted in 21 support of the Ex Parte Application as Exhibit "A".

22
23 8. Prior to this latest round of settlement discussions, my attorneys 24 and I have explored filing actions for partition, declaratory relief, and unjust 25 enrichment, among other claims. However, given the tenuous nature of Carolina 26 Development's interest in Fountainhead, and the potential liabilities of not removing 27 the Notice, together with the immediate cash benefit to the estate, I believe that it is 28 in the best interest of the receivership for this Court to approve the settlement

1 proposed in the attached settlement agreement (Ex. "A" to Seaman Decl., Ex Parte 2 Application).

SUPPORT THEREOF on the interested party(ies) in this action by placing true copies/ originals thereof enclosed in sealed envelopes and/or packages addressed as follows:

9 BY MAIL: I am "readily familiar" with the firm's practice of collection and 10 processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be 11 deposited with the U.S. postal service on that same day with postage thereon 12 fully prepaid at Costa Mesa, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

14 pursuant to Rule 2008 of the California Rules of Court. The telephone 15 number of the sending facsimile machine was 714-513-5130. The name(s) 16 and facsimile machine telephone number(s) of the person(s) served are set 17 forth in the service list. The sending facsimile machine (or the machine used to forward the facsimile) issued a transmission report confirming that the transmission was complete and without error. Pursuant to Rule 2.306(g)(4), a copy of that report is attached to this declaration.

18 BY OVERNIGHT DELIVERY: I served such envelope or package to be 19 delivered on the same day to an authorized courier or driver authorized by the overnight service carrier to receive documents, in an envelope or package designated by the overnight service carrier.
